

News from the Garden Club...

Christine Tailer to Speak

The Lake Waynoka Garden Club welcomes Christine Tailer to speak at their next meeting on Thursday, April 12th, 7:00 p.m. at the lodge. Christine is author of the *Straight Creek Essays*, a weekly column in the News-Democrat. Christine and her husband Greg live at the Straight Creek Valley Farm near Georgetown. They purchased the farm in the spring of 2003. The farm is located three miles north of the Ohio River. Both are Cincinnati transplants and now 'live off the grid', learning to love an entirely new lifestyle.

An attorney by profession, Christine now finds herself living and working off the land. She grows a large vegetable and herb garden and freezes most of her produce. She and Greg also care for a variety of farm critters, including goats, pigs, chickens and other assorted farm animals. More information about Christine and her farm can be found at their web site: <http://straightcreekvalleyfarm.com/>.

The public is welcome to attend this free event. Members of the garden club will serve refreshments. You do not have to be a member of the garden club to attend this event. This is a wonderful opportunity to meet fellow gardeners and to hear a speaker that lives off the land. Please call club president, Tom Mays, at (937) 446-2769 or email him at waynoka\_1@yahoo.com for more information about the Lake Waynoka Garden Club.